

Navigating Opioid Safety Across the Continuum of Care

Medinah Shriners | Addison, IL

Wednesday, October 9, 2019

Agenda

11:30am-12:00pm	Lunch and Check-In
12:00-12:05 pm	Introduction and Welcome - Rashmi Chugh, MD
12:05-12:35 pm	A Guide To New Opioid Prescribing Rules: An Update From The IDFPR - Joseph E. Fojtik, MD, FACP Dr. Fojtik will cover the current opioid prescribing landscape in Illinois from the IDFPR perspective, including the selection of FSMB Guidelines, recommendations for incorporating them into practice, continuing education requirements, and resources for clinicians.
12:35-1:50 pm	Assisting Patients With Opioid Use Disorder: Diagnosis And Treatment - Elizabeth Salisbury-Afshar, MD, MPH,FAAFP, FASAM, FACPM Dr. Salisbury-Afshar will review the terminology and diagnostic criteria for opioid use disorder, treatment options for opioid use disorder, how to initiate treatment and referrals for opioid use disorder.
1:50-2:05pm	Break
2:05-2:50pm	The Role Of Opioids In The Safe Treatment Of Chronic Pain - William Campbell, DO Dr. Campbell will review opioid safety guidelines, including how to safely taper a patient on opioid therapy for chronic noncancer pain.
2:50-4:20pm	Safe And Effective Alleviation Of Acute Pain - David Ring, MD, PhD Trained as a hand and orthopedic surgeon, Dr. Ring will provide strategies and a toolkit for safe and effective alleviation of acute patient pain. This will include strategies and an action plan to help patients ready for and accommodate post-operative pain in the safest, most comfortable way, including pharmacological and nonpharmacological approaches.
4:20-4:30pm	Evaluation and Closing
